Hello! My name is Jeff Scott and I am the Vice President of Education at Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge located in Valley Forge, PA. As a person that has taught and led social studies at the K-12 level for a number of years, I know how important quality professional learning is for social studies teachers and promise teachers will not waste their time coming to seminars at Freedoms Foundation.

We still have some scholarships available for k-12 teachers that teach primarily U.S. History, Government, and/or Civic Education, especially for the seminars of: Constitutional History, Frederick Douglass: Legacy and Impact, and Medal of Honor Legacy: Cold War. It would be much appreciated if you could share these opportunities with those in your network and feel to reach out to me with questions. I am also available to do a Zoom to discuss our teacher as well as student programs.

We would love to have more teachers from Iowa with us this summer. A message that we have sent to other councils, organizations, and state leaders to share is below.

Thank you and finish strong,

Jeff

ACCREDITED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR TEACHERS

"I was amazed by the excellent quality of speakers and [the] extremely well run program week. This was one of the strongest professional development trainings that I have attended. I can't wait to bring my newfound knowledge [to] my students."
